Collection of short stories and all of them are captivating.

Hameeda says

I liked his Zavia books more than these short stories. I think I am more of a Baba Saheban person.

The Ujlay Phool story always make me cry like hell and it leaves a very sad impression on me! But I love this whole book and yes Gadarya is no doubt an uncallengable art piece

Gaduriya - The Shepherd, is said to be Ashfaq Ahmed's masterpiece and I can't deny this. Again, this is an anthology of his short stories which are totally entertaining, sad and tragic at times.

What I love most about this book is that those stories were written way back in 1950s and 60s and it feels good to read about things that don't exist in our lives anymore such as, telegram etc.
