? Mira ✱ says

I never thought I'd see Mozart become a YA legend. But Marie Lu has made me ship 15 year olds, cry for days, and fail my final exams, so I have complete faith that she will make it happen.

Nick says

Who spread the rumor that Marie Lu has replicated herself and the army of hers is going to attack us with a million books during 2019?

thatgirlwithallthebooks (Shannon) says

i will read whatever this woman writes, i swear it.

yes i've only read the legend trilogy. but it's one of my all time favourites. i will definitely read the young elites & warcross !! and of course every thing else ?♥???

Simona Bartolotta says

I think new series should be kept secret until, say, six months before the release, especially if it's an author like Marie Lu we're talking about, because jeez, my heart plummets when I look at that hideous "Expected publication: 2019". Just sayin'.

update: look!!! every time I get new information about this book my heart swells with excitement

I ADDED THIS BOOK AS SOON AS I SAW MARIE LU'S NAME and when I read the description it got even better

I've always thought it sad that Nannerl couldn't pursue music like her brother because 18th century gender roles are the worst. plus, it's MARIE LU, so this is basically guaranteed to be amazing

but 2019....that's so far away..... *weeps silently into bowl of cheerios*

mith says

does she ever sleep?

Elise (TheBookishActress) says

fantasy, by Marie Lu, based off the childhood of composer Mozart. uhhhhh yes?
