It's-a-full-life says

I constantly refer back to this book when I need a new way to look or think about things. I also use it to encourage my writing.

Bonita Rose says

a book full of good things.

Tracimaster says

I read this in my early 20's. It was very influential on me. I loved her margin quotes.

Karen says

This book is a bit dated (1090), but I really enjoy Alexandra Stoddard, and once again she didnt disappoint. Lots of decorating tips and ways to express your own style.

Pam says

This is a fun book to read at the change of seasons. It puts you in the mood to decorate, entertain, and other such fun things. It is in my permanent collection to read over and over.

Holly says

This book is from a noted interior decorator on the art of living.

Truthful says

I lost my first copy of this book after reading it twice, so had to buy it again in order to read it twice more. FANTASTIC

Amber Spencer says

I liked a lot of the principles, but she jumps all over the place and the thoughts are not easy to follow sometimes. A lot of good about being yourself though.

Carrie Ridgeway says

Very good book. Re-read for gracious-living ideas.

Artchick111 says

This book changed my personal style forever. A very fun and inspiring read.

Mary Wescott says

Never have had a problem being myself - but enjoyed her journey into the being yourself!
