Laura says

This early chapter book has three separate stories about Henry and his dog Mudge.

Each of them is about fun things they do together in the summer.

Horace Mann Family Reading Challenge says

They climb a hill. N.L.

Natasha Friegang says

I love all of these books. The Kindergarten kids love the fact that they are chapter books. There is a level of adult humor that goes on, so they aren't boring to read aloud. The characters are sweet and it's fun that this is part of a series, which kids love too.

Shay says

I liked it because of their imagination.

Shauna says

Branson is reading these in his reading group at school. They are simple, but help him maintain his vocabulary. He is reading books at higher levels than this, but they are a good way for him to get AR points.

Christy says

Henry and his 180-pound dog Mudge are best friends forever. And in this third book of their adventures, they share summertime fun!

midnightfaerie says

A book my 6 yr old loved, a little old for my preschoolers. A solid reading level 2 book, this reader has a good amount of advanced vocabulary words, but not so long that it discourages a new reader. Used it for his read out loud book, which was perfect. It took about 15 mins for him to read and had just enough new vocabulary words to make it challenging. Also, it was a fun and interesting story he could get into. He liked it so much, he asked for more by this author. Great reading book!

Pauline says

Excellent book for young children.

Cat says

So magical! Reading the Henry and Mudge books always takes me back to my childhood. But this one really makes me homesick for those carefree summer days.... Love the story, love the illustrations. Just beautiful.

Debbie says

Really sweet ending to this story...fun imaginative play between a boy and his dog.

Sarah says

Henry and Mudge play outside in summer. They have a picnic. Mudge comforts Henry when he gets stung by a bee. Henry gives Mudge a bath. They play knights and dragons. Wonderful real life stuff for beginning readers.

Jennifer says

A great read aloud with my son. We took turns reading to each other. This series is filled with pleasant stories about a boy and his dog.

Dana Johnson says

Great for children to start getting into chapter books.

Shanna says

I used this as a read aloud with my second graders this past week. It was a cute story that teaches my students about chapter books as well as realistic fiction.

Nora says

MCL. I liked the last part when they fell asleep on the hill.
