4.5 stars-I have only read IMMORTAL POSSESSION by Cassi Carver--

ABOUT THE BOOK: Release Date October 2014

When Dr. Evelyn Vale is paired with Immortal Bounty's sexy commander to go undercover, she's eager to get to work. Until she learns the catch... To keep her dream job and her even dreamier new partner, she'll have to face her greatest fear--possession.

Commander Jesse Hayes has always been about completing the mission, no matter the costs. But he's having doubts about loaning out Evelyn's body to the spirit of a deceased Sentinel in order to infiltrate a dangerous, supernatural body-trafficking ring. Now that Evelyn is in his life, he doesn't want anyone possessing her body but him.

REVIEW: 4.5 stars--IMMORTAL POSSESSION is the latest adult, paranormal /UF release from author Cassi Carver focusing on the men and women who work for the government's Immortal Bounty division. Following an apocalypse known as The Great Collision, that rendered most of the world with some sort of supernatural power, there are others who have become the victim of a mutating leukemia. This is Dr. Evelyn Vale and Commander Jesse Hayes's storyline.

The focus follows Evelyn as she is finally accepted into the government's Immortal Bounty program but what Evelyn doesn't know is the reason for her current hire. As a human who is easily possessed by spirits, Evelyn will be used in a plan to reveal a supernatural body-trafficking ring where she will become the prey in a dangerous mission. Enter Jesse Hayes-an Immortal Bounty Sentinel Commander and the man who will protect Evelyn with his very life. As Jesse and Evelyn begin their undercover operation, they will soon discover that there is more to Evelyn power's than anyone could know. With Evelyn's lack of experience, Immortal Bounty will call in a Jesse's former and now deceased partner to possess the body of Evelyn Vale.

The relationship between Evelyn and Jesse begins as co-workers to friends but quickly escalates to lovers as Evelyn and Jesse must go undercover as a married couple. The sex scenes are provocative and intense. Our couple's developing love for one another will place Jesse in the position to protect the woman with whom he is falling in love. A series of dead and mutilated bodies all point to an affluent gated community, and our couple will begin the arduous task of uncovering the who and the why.

The secondary characters include several members of Jesse's Immortal Bounty team including a sexy canine shifter and a woman who calls spirits back from the beyond. We are introduced to Jesse's superior Steward Clark- a man who runs The Immortal Bounty division, and a man with secrets of his own.

IMMORTAL POSSESSION is a story with action, mystery, suspense and romance. The reader is pulled into a storyline where fantasy meets reality; where the need for life ever lasting places everyone on a collision course with a powerful spirit.

Cassi Carver's world of the supernatural is emotional, sometimes heartbreak and passionate. The possibility of science fiction becoming science reality is an all too precarious concept.

Please note that this review is only for the novella Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf by Elisabeth Staab.

I am a huge fan of Elisabeth Staab's fangtulous Chronicles of Yavn series and was beyond thrilled when I was given a review copy of her novella Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf. While I'm still bummed that my Heroes with fangs have come to a close, I'm excited about this new world that Ms. Staab created.

Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf was everything I've come to expect from an Elisabeth Staab story. It was action-packed, super smexy, snarky, and hooked me from page one.

Asher Hughes is a hotter than hell, lone wolf who severed ties with his old pack due to the illegal nature of their business. He went on to create a life for himself, even though he gets dragged back into pack business on occasion. As much as he would love to keep his distance and/or tell them all to frak off, they're family.

Agent Sherri Walker is relocating due to issues at work. I won't go into detail as it's important to Sherri's character development, but I will say that Sherri was betrayed by someone she trusted and is now getting some much needed R&R before starting her new job. Last thing she expected was to end up bringing a stranger back to her hotel room, to have her naughty way with. Sherri has read about and researched werewolves, but she had never met one until Ash walked into her life. She may not have been looking to get involved in werewolf politics, but she ended up right in the middle of it.

The world building and character development in Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf were both really strong, Ash is unbelievably hot *swoons*, Sherri was snarky and fun, the smexy times are aplenty, the dedicated was spot on (cause David Gandy is the shite!), and the novella left me wanting more in this world.

Ash and Sherri were great together and I hope that we will get more of them. I'd love to see how their budding relationship plays out and if they can make it work. I'd also really, really like more of Jett and Kyle. I give Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf 4 stars.

So far, I have only read Wild Nights with a Lone Wolf by Elisabeth Staab, and it was phenomenal! Ash is a great hero. He is super rough and tough, but has his soft qualities too. Everything was very well balanced and I really enjoyed him. I thought Sherri was great too! It was cool to see her take a walk on the wild side. One of my favorite things about this story was how you could tell Ash and Sherri each had a complicated history. They are mentioned in the book, but do not overshadow the craziness that the two experience in just a couple of days. Everything was exciting...the story, the characters, the dialogue, the body language. It was all done very well! I really really really hope this is the beginning of a series. I'm not ready to let these characters go just yet. I received this story in exchange for an honest review, but I'm planning on purchasing the box set.

5) Shadows Till Sunrise: A Lilly Meratoliage Novel (Volume 1) by Chris Marie Green This is a Vampire Babylon spin-off (a Lilly Meratoliage urban fantasy romance) Received an author's copy for review
Awesome new series by Chris Marie Green featuring Lilly Meratoliage from the Vampires of Babylon series. When last we say Lilly she was burned and her mouth was in a frozen scream. Now we find her in New Orleans, aided by a White Witch Amari and a psychic Philippe Angier. This story grips you from the beginning. Yes she is still running from and hunting the Meratoliage when the find her but there are other paranormal activities that are included in this book. Lilly after she ran away from her "family" she met Amari. She fashioned a pair of vine boots for Lilly that became a part of her body. Theses boots "transformed" Lilly into a beautiful young woman who had no burns or scars. The side affect? Every night when Lilly slept the boots "healed" her and when she awoke the next night she had no memory of the day before. Not long after Phillippe met Lilly he attempted to turn her over to her family for the money. To say he had a change of heart is an understatement. He cares deeply for Lilly and is hurt that when she has her deep healing sleep she does not remember him. Together they investigate a "phantom" who killed a couple, the woman tied to a tree and the man with a with saber. If you love suspense, mystery, and a very well written story, then this is the book for you. I personally hope Chris wrts more adventures of Lilly Meratoliage.

6) A Shadow at Twilight by Mary Leo

Dillon Spencer is a partner with his father. Dillon is a very good lawyer. His father is known as Frank the Tank.

Dillon is getting ready to go on a two week vacation to Colorado like he has done for the past 10 years. He stays at the same hotel, same room. He is a different person when there.

Instead of being the man his father wants him to be, and engaged to a woman he does not love, he is carefree, polite to all and having fun. He goes to Colorado to visit his grandmother.

Hilly Thompson is Dillon's personal assistant. Anything that needs done she does it. Schedules appoints, make vacation arrangements, everything. At times (most) she wants to quit because she feels her boss is basically not a nice guy. When she tries to leave he gives her a nice raise and says how much he needs her. When he does show a softer side she really likes him.

It seems Hilly and Dillon are in Colorado at the same time for vacations.

When Dillon goes to pick up his grandmother and take her back to his hotel they are in a car accident. Hilly gets the call about her boss being in a coma and it is not looking good.

After Hilly visits Dillon in the hospital, she goes back to his hotel as it is closer than hers to make arrangements in case the worse happens. While relaxing in the bath she sees Dillon. But Dillon is still in a coma in the hospital.

Does Dillon recover? If so do Hilly and Dillon get together? Are the ghosts real and do they continue to stay?

Another great story.

Amber says

Immortal Possession by Cassi Carver- I was hooked and intrigued by this one from the start. It just kept getting more and more fascinating.

It was such an interesting world. People have developed all of these different mutations. Some have horns or wings. Others can shape-shift and so much more!

I really like Evelyn. At times she could be overtly sensitive but she's lived a very hard life full of struggles. She's still an incredibly strong person. I love her sense of humor.

And Jesse, he's definitely swoon worthy. He comes off as this big bad alpha male but he has a big heart. I adored the banter between him and Evelyn. The chemistry between them was really hot too!

The secondary characters were always very fun and interesting too. I hope that some of them get stories too in the future.

It was just a great story with a very fast pace and a great romance. I loved the authors writing style. I did not want to put this one down.

I can't wait to read more from her!

bookaholic ge says

This book came out at the perfect time. I found myself getting drawn into the Halloween spirit and actually was scared by some of these hauntingly romantic stories. If you love or even like paranormal romances this series of books are exactly what you need. Literally a book for everyone in here. I usually stay away from things like this because I am always afraid the stories will be short but omg I was amazed I received a full story from each author. Whoever came up with the idea of this combination of authors working together should get a raise because each book was amazing. What's also great is usually when I think paranormal I think of shifters but no no no there were vampires, shape shifters, spirits and any other sexy thing that can go bump in the dark! Hot, romantic, enduring, heartbreakingly beautiful! I can go on and on and on but I will say great bargain, great books, great job!

Diablo Springs = Gracey and Reilly come full circle as history repeats itself and they must reunite to save not only their child but their hearts. This is one of the books that amazed me the most. I usually hate flash back stories, when you hear about the past to get to the future but this book was wonderful! If writing a combo pack like this was a relay race, this was the book that should always lead the pack. I found myself as interested in the past as I was actually looking forward to the stories of the future. Great job Erin.

Vampire reborn= Who doesn't love a story of a man coming back from near dead to protect his family. What I love is that yes he was strong but he was also vulnerable and did exactly what he had to do, even befriend the most unexpected people to protect his loved ones.

Shadow Fall= Annabella uses the power of dance to unknowingly bring people from other dimensions.

Luckily for her she gets the sexy, selfless Custo from heaven so he can come and save the day. Unluckily for her she also brings a dark wolf that wants to dominate, stalk and enslave her over as well. Add in hot love scenes, funny word play between Annabella and Custo, the heartbreak of life lost well before its time, and a friendship that not even money can buy and you have got a hit!

NIGHT ANGEL by Lisa Kessler= Hauntingly beautiful. It shows that two people that have lost so much can create something so beautiful.

SHADOWS TILL SUNRISE by Chris Marie Green: 3 words HOT HOT HOT!

SHADOW AT TWILIGHT by Mary Leo: Nothing stronger than a love than can bring you back from the after life!

MORE THAN FIENDS by Maureen Child= Super funny, timeless, loved every second of this book

IMMORTAL POSSESSION by Cassi Carver: I love an underdog and the men that stand by their sides believing in them every step of the way! What many may consider a weakness can actually be untapped potential.

FOREVER ROSE by Janet Wellington: Unexpected journeys into the past to stop a man focused on revenge from making the worst mistake of his life and then getting the added bonus of falling in love...priceless

WELCOME HOME, VAMPIRE by Theresa Meyers: Every woman needs a man like Cole in their lives to save the day!!!!

VAMPIRE MAGIC (Blood Genie, books 1 and 2) by Sheri Whitefeather: Nothing better than seeing the beauty in people that they cant even see in themselves. This was not only a great book but a great message.

WILD NIGHTS WITH A LONE WOLF by Elisabeth Staab: daring and sexy who could ask for more!

12 excellent tales for this Halloween season. This bundle is filled with the supernatural, ghosts, vampires, shape shifters and demons. I enjoyed all of these great reads. They were easy to get lost in and get me in the perfect mood for some Halloween fun. The stories are fast passed, the characters drew me in and they were sexy. I enjoyed them all.

Donna says

I'll admit I haven't read all of the stories in this box set yet but here are my thoughts on the ones I have read:
DIABLO SPRINGS by Erin Quinn

Two stories in one. Will a curse from the past give Gracie and Reilly a future? If it doesn't kill them first.
VAMPIRE REBORN by Caridad Pineiro

This is a short action packed story that I thoroughly enjoyed but if you haven't read Die For Love you may not get as much out of it. Ryder and Diana are dealing with a lot of changes. But what doesn't change is their love for each other.

SHADOWS TILL SUNRISE by Chris Marie Green

Lilly has a problem. She wakes every morning with no memory of who she is. This is actually a good thing for the reader as we find out together why this is and what mysteries lie in her past. There is action, adventure, danger, magic, mystery, and a bit of romance. And while this is a spin-off of the fantastic Vampire Babylon series this novel stands well on its own. I look forward to following Lilly as she learns and grows. If this series is anything like Vampire Babylon we are in for a heck of a ride.

MORE THAN FIENDS by Maureen Child

Funny, funny story about a woman coming into her Demon slaying powers.

IMMORTAL POSSESSION by Cassi Carver

This is a terrific start to a new series by “new to me” author Cassi Carver. You can bet I will be checking out future installments. The world building is fantastic and the characters make me want to revisit.

WILD NIGHTS WITH A LONE WOLF by Elisabeth Staab

I love werewolf stories and this is a super hot one with a surprising twist.

Angela says

Julie says

What a great bundle. 12 excellent supernatural stories, with vampires, ghosts, demons and shapeshifters just in time for the Halloween season. If you enjoy paranormal romance this collection will have something for you. The stories are very well written, all very different, some very sexy and some not, just heart warming. I loved them all. You can just pick which supernatural creature and story you are in the mood for, then sit back and enjoy. Great!

Candy says

Diablo Springs was a strange one to comprehend at first cause it shifted to the past. I felt all the characters as usual, it felt like I was there with them looking through their eyes. Suspense, heartache, and closure sum this one up.

Vampire Reborn my kind if suspense and need to read the beginning of Diana and Ryder's story, but enjoyed their story so far. Hope they find who killed Richard and what happens with Ben.

it had me on edge wondering if Custo and Annabella were gonna be together? in the end they made it through and I am very happy. "Death will never part us".

Night Angel was another on the end if my seat at the end. I wish there was more with Colin and Juliana. I too teared up with this one like I did in Shadow Fall.

Shadows till Sunrise started out weird but I eventually caught on. It was such a sad story, waking up and having no memory. Lilly got past her fears and got her soulmate in the end and like most stories this one tugged the heartstrings in the end.

Shadows at twilight not my usual kind of story (no sex), but I read it in hope for Hilly and Dillon. pulled at the heartstrings, when Dillon woke up I too hoped he'd be the Dillon that was his essence but he wasn't :-(. it took him months to reach out finally to Hilly and that made up for it in the end.

More than friends

Good old fashion demon slaying. Caught between two men, one mortal and one demon both causing feelings for Cassie tough decision? A new twist to demon hunter ( demon duster) sounds like a chore....lol loved Evelyn and in ways I see myself with the human part of her. Jesse finally finds the one that makes him whole, they are meant to be even with the obstacles. drew me in and I felt each one's pain and happiness.

Forever Rose

I like Taylor Rose wasn't sure of what was happening but came to the same conclusion as her. knowing that while she slept Jackson was shot dead in the past but shows up in her present was the best ending.

Welcome home vampire too short but had adventure. when a woman loves unconditionally you know you're meant to be together. The Vampire Pendant & The Vampire Bracelet were great even though short, a great story line. one is to show that beauty is within and the other one shows that what you want is not always the person you're with but the one that comes along.

Wild nights with a lone wolf hot and heavy with excitement makes for good reading. loved the characters especially shifters.

All in all I really enjoyed this set of books even the short novellas.

Dakota Storm says

DIABLO SPRINGS by Erin Quinn

This story has a haunted feel with a lot of history throughout the story, I think if the history was given right off the back the story itself would have flowed better, it seemed to jump around too much and kind of lost me here and there, I would have liked to know a little bit more in the beginning to really fall into the story. I think the story was intriguing and has a lot of twists and turns and was somewhat interesting. 3 stars

VAMPIRE REBORN by Caridad Pineiro

I'm not sure about this story, I thought it was too empty, parts being glazed over or missing. I'm not sure but I had a hard time finishing the story. I thought the idea was great, I liked Diana and Little Charlie. Ryder is a sexy vampire who is changing and I liked his humanity but again parts seemed lost. I don't think it flowed well and didn't keep my attention. 2.5-3 stars

SHADOW FALL by Erin Kellison

I thought this story started off great, very mysterious and intriguing and almost wow then it went down a little from there, then further from there. Very little grip you action, very little to grab your attention and keep it, had high hopes when I started it but it was difficult to get through. 3 stars

NIGHT ANGEL

Sexy as hell cover! This story is quite fascinating the characters are different, not your normal paranormal..lol.., very creatively written. It's a little slow in parts but the intriguing mystery kept me reading. I thought it turned into a magnificent story of wonder, of evil and the many things in between. Love and the ultimate sacrifice took this story to a new level, great story 4.5 stars

SHADOWS TILL SUNRISE by Chris Marie Green

Very mysterious and intriguing, the author captures your attention early. I think some parts are a little drawn out but over all very interesting story with twists and turns and very fascinating magic. I thought the writer created a very unique story and I enjoyed the characters very much. 4 stars

A SHADOW AT TWILIGHT by Mary Leo

Another nice cover! This story was well written. I enjoyed the intrigue and mystery, I loved all the ghostly beings and Dillon and Hilly. I love how Dillon is with his grandmother, how he loves life and being silly with her and I love Hilly and her desire to please Dillon even though she thinks he's a ass. Dillon's father is a complete ass, I'm glad Hilly stood up to him. I thought the story was creative and very unique, it was flat a little in the middle I thought it could have been more but the story itself was a very enjoyable read.

4-4.5 stars
