Birds in Beards 2: Dead Poets Edition: Poems to Read and Portraits to Color Shoshanah Lee Marohn

The long awaited sequel to the Birds in Beards Coloring Book, Birds in Beards 2: Dead Poets Edition embodies the same whimsical ideas of the first book, but this time, Marohn drew famous dead poets. This coloring book includes silly portraits of Walt Whitman, Henry David Thoreau, Emily Dickinson, Rumi, Gustaf Fröding, Christina Rossetti, Edgar Allan Poe, and many more. It's a little bit different from the first Birds in Beards, mainly in that it is not just a coloring book, but also a poetry anthology. Beside each portrait of a poet is a sampling of the subject's poetry. Poems in other languages are not translated, so it is a poly-lingual book, including poems in Norwegian, Swedish, and Portuguese. Marohn used all of the best old timey poets in the public domain, so the poems are as high quality as the detailed drawings. Available at Amazon.com.

This is a great coloring book with an awesome selection of poetry. At first I didn't like that a few of the poems weren't translated but there weren't many and I could just look them up. They ended up adding to the magic of this adorable book.
