Stuck Inside On A Snowy Day (The World of Michael-Gichael, January) Rebecca Bartolo

Hi! My name is Gichael; it rhymes with Michael. Nobody else has my name. When I was little I couldn't say Michael. I called myself Gichael, and the nickname stuck. In this story, I am stuck inside on a snowy day getting over a cold. When my friend comes over to play with me, I am going to win at every game! This is the first book in a series about The World of Michael-Gichael.

In "The World of Michael-Gichael" book series, the title character is an eight year old boy with with a 'can-do' attitude who often tries to get things to go his way. His neighbor, Emily, is always trying to get him to see the big picture. Sometimes he gets it, and sometimes he doesn't, but there is always something to laugh about along the way. Children will enjoy getting to know Gichael and all his friends, and parents will enjoy sharing these timeless tales.

I received this book as part of a goodreads first reads giveaway. This book is a cute little story about friendship, rivalry and what to do when you are stuck in the house. One to share with my children when they are older.

This book is a nice short story about a boy who always wants to play and he wants to win! He wants to play with his friend (Emily). But he hates that she beats him every time.

It could be a good night story to every child!
