One Month. A lot can happen in a short space of time. There were thirty-one days in July 2014 like there are in all Julys - Limerick was no different. From the outside, Dolly Roche, Dillon Keyes and Abby Carey lead lives no different from other people either. But just how far can a seemingly common life push the boundaries of the human condition? Behind the quiet eyes of the everyday, how spectacular can those fireworks shine in the mind of the beholder? Drawing influence from Modernist and Post-Modernist literature, The Clock Tower is a journey through our everyday experience of reality and the surreal - displaying that within the mind of every person, a colourful and expansive narrative is forever unfolding.

This book is well written but to be honest i found it tricky to read at times! This whole what is real and what isn't, future and past. It wasnt confusing but it was more why? Sometimes i didnt get the necessity as to the need to chop and change!! Obviously this book supposed to make you think and it certainly had me thinking!! Maybe i just not used to this style of read!! Anyway it unique, different and characters easy to relate to (on some levels) Will get you brain working
