101 Things to Do Outside: Loads of fantastically fun reasons to get up, get out, and get active! Weldon Owen

From animal tracking and survival skills to using a compass and growing vegetables, 101 Things to Do Outside is the perfect guide for young explorers and aspiring adventurers longing for a taste of the great outdoors. Right outside your front door, there's a world bursting with adventures just waiting to be explored. This pocket-sized book is overflowing with things to try, do, learn, and remember (plus it has a handy checklist!). Includes helpful step-by-step illustrations and plenty of activities and lessons. Activities include: Outdoor games such as beach basketball and giant chess; Outdoor art projects such as build a hammock and making bark rubbings; Outdoor nature activities such as bug hunting and fossil hunting; Outdoor gardening activities such as planting a boot garden and creating an herb window box; Outdoor exploring activities such as cooking on a campfire and sending message with a flashlight. The fourth installment of the 101 Things series encourages children to step away from the computer screen and experience nature firsthand from their very own backyards.

Dianne Hahn says

This book is laid out in a wonderful format to work with children and parents. My niece and I needed something to keep her two boys entertained outside and this book certainly fits the bill. It is illustrated with wonderful pictures and descriptions that are easy to follow. The ideas for the activities are stimulating.
