It's Easter in Radiator Springs and no one is more excited than Mater. He can't wait for the Easter Buggy to fill his tire with goodies such as lugnuts and coolant. But his best friend Lightning McQueen is worried that Mater's holiday will be ruined when Mater wakes up to find that his Easter tire is empty. So Lightning comes up with a plan to make sure his pal's dreams aren't dashed. After all, Lightning knows the Easter Buggy isn't real. Right? This adorable picture book featuring everyone's favorite Cars characters has foil on the cover and is perfect for Easter baskets...or tires!

Sarah says

Cute, but why doesn't Lightning believe in the Easter Buggy? This isn't a conversation that I want to have with my kindergartener.

Courtney says

Bobo loved it! I like the front and back covers where the Easter Buggy was hiding.

Carolina Cruz says

I really like Cars [pixar] and wanted to read this book for myself to enjoy. It was nice, but I found that it had to be read as a bedtime story or a read aloud to a group of kids 7-. It did not get five stars from me, because I got a bit bored, and it became predictable [I'm almost 19] However, if I read it to kids, I am sure they would enjoy it, if they liked Cars.

Brian says

You wouldn't believe how difficult this is to read out loud. It's not Easter basket; it's Easter tire. Now imagine loads of this type of transposition in a kids book. yikes

Karen says

My 2yo, who is a huge Pixar Cars fan, loved this.

Formatted nightmare

Good luck this is not properly formatted for kindle, you can't see all of the pictures and the writing is horribly disjointed save your money, luckily my boy made it threw it but I was close to having a sad 3 year old.

Andrea says

Melanie got this in her Easter basket because she likes Mater. I like it ok, but I tend to pick other things if I get to choose.
