The Deputy's Unexpected Family Patricia Johns

From stubborn bachelor to family man...

The Comfort Creek Lawmen have a new member

Returning home has stirred painful memories for officer Gabe Banks. But responding to a robbery at Harper Kemp's bridal shop has upended his world. Harper's adopted four-year-old is the daughter he never knew existed. Gabe's no longer the bad boy Harper remembers, but he's still terrified of commitment. Despite their fierce attraction, Harper must protect her little girl's heart...and her own.

Lovely Read

A really enjoyable plot, with plenty of twists and turns. Mystery, suspense and thrills and let's not forget the romance. I'll be looking forward to seeing more from this author.

Miniseries: Comfort Creek Lawmen

Bonnie says

The Deputy's Unexpected Family a Comfort Creek Lawmen #3 series by Patricia Johns. Harper Kemp owns Blessing Bridal shop. Someone broke in and stole a lot of items. Deputy Gabe Banks showed up to take the report. Gabe and Harper know each other from when they were kids. Harper has custody of Gabe's four year old little girl, that Gabe doesn't know is his. Gabe is in town for two weeks for training. He talked back to his boss where Gabe now lives. Gabe has a lot of issues he is dealing with. Then Harper tells Gabe that her daughter, Zoey is his daughter. Now Gabe has that to deal with plus the break in at Blessing Bridal Shop. Gabe and Harper are attracted to each other. Gabe doesn't want a wife and daughter. But when Harper is hiding in her building when robbers break in again. Gabe is upset and tells Harper he loves her. A very touching and romantic story. A good read.

Gail says

This was a clean romance with strong Christian values which were clearly expressed. Gabe's character had been severely impacted by his harsh custodial grandmother and he needed Harper's help to grow into the role of father. This was a pleasant read with no real emotional highs or lows. I don't know if I'll look for other books by Ms. Johns
