The Goonies meets The Evil Dead in this action-packed series that R.L. Stine calls “fast, frightening, and all TOO REAL!”

Ian, Kendra, and PJ have learned everything they know about being Gravediggers from their trusted teacher and friend, Warden O’Dea. They’ve battled the undead on a mountaintop and on a creepy island, and they’re ready for more.

But when a vengeful ex-Gravedigger kidnaps O’Dea in a plot to release scores of zombies onto the earth, the kids’ journey takes them deep into the caves of Indonesia to a lost city called Kudus. And if a terrifying breed of dangerous, evolved zombies isn’t enough, there are plenty of unsettling surprises inside the group, too. Kendra is wrestling with strange new powers that she can’t explain, while Ian realizes feelings for Kendra that he can’t explain. And PJ has been handed a chilling prophecy about his future that he’s afraid to share with his friends.

In this final installment of the series, the kids’ Gravedigger skills and their friendship are put to the ultimate test. The fate of the human world rests on their shoulders—but will they escape Kudus with their lives?

Wow! I won this book in the Goodreads Giveaways and I have to say I am going to pass this book onto my husband for him to read. He loves reading these types of books too so I am sure he will enjoy it as much as I did. Great find!

Maddie says

It was a little young for my liking because I like the more advanced books both in content and text level. But what I did like was that it was always fast paced. Something was always happening which is good because I absolutely don't like getting bored in books.

Ms. Yingling says

Well, now I know why I was confused. This is book three. Now must find book two, right after the nightmares from this book stop. Why are zombies so appealing? And why do middle school students love them so much? Sigh.

I love this trilogy. I love it so much, I'm sad it's a trilogy (though maybe now that they are technically more than gravediggers there might be more under a different header? Please?)

Zombie fighters- Gravediggers- are not as prevalent as zombie containers -Wardens-. Now, in order to save their kidnapped Warden, the gravediggers must go below ground to a city that was contained by the earth 1000 years ago. And in those 1000 years, the zombies have adapted...
