Evette says

Eleven short stories about love, what could be better? Stories about new love, love lost, soul mates, love at first sight, rekindled love and allowing love to find you. Short stories can be a hit or miss with me-similar to novellas.

Some of my favorites-

All Roads lead to Jackson- Juli Valenti

Jackson-enough said. :) He and Raven are incredible.

Bad Girlfriend – Brooke Cumberland

This story-wow. I was all over the place, laughing, ugly UGLY crying and feeling as if my heart would burst from the love. I'm so excited she is working on a full length version of this story. Will need to stock up on Gatorade and tissues. Embracing love, regardless of the result.

Fated Love-Brandy L. Rivers

Absolutely love this shapeshifter/werewolf story. Excited to be introduced to this author/series. Christian-swoooooon

Coming Home-Melissa Collins

Melissa is one of my favorite authors and this story added to my love! Second chance at love, moving away from the past and trying together for a future. Yay!

Cora's Plantation-Jettie Woodruff

Finding love where you least expect it as well going where it takes you. And Cora is a rockstar.

No Details-Marie Wathen

Intense attraction that goes against all the rules! I want more

Definitely recommend this collection. A little something for everyone.

Claire Taylor says

This is such an amazing collection and if you love sweet romance, I cannot stress enough how much you will enjoy reading it. I thoroughly enjoyed reading every story, and will definitely be looking up the works of all the authors I hadn't heard of before. Each story was different and unique, and more than one left me wanting more from the characters. Every emotion possible is portrayed somewhere, one story had me in tears, others laughing so much but in every one I felt love, romance and happiness. The perfect feel good anthology.

I received an e-copy in exchange for an honest review.

ARC Review for Reading by the Book

I was engrossed in the anthology from beginning to end. Each love story unique in it's own way but showcasing the talent of all 11 authors. I am partial to Brooke story and can't wait to see how she expands on it. The events were real and the story was heartfelt. Thank you ladies for you hard work and channeling that inner lover and making me want to get out and just try.

Holly Michelle says

I was given an ARC in exchange for an HONEST review.

Review of All Our Love

When I first looked over the line up for this book I was amazed at all the great Authors that were included in this anthology. Usually I will recognize a couple in a list of anthologies, but with this book I knew every Author who contributed so I couldn't wait to start reading.

Once I started reading I found myself not wanting to put it down. This is always a good sign! I was worried before I started reading that I would have a hard time reviewing since it would be a list of different stories all in one book. Well that notion was thrown right out the window. I enjoyed every story in the book and would give them all 5 stars. This helped me to write this.

The title of the book really defines the book. In each story there is lots of emotions but it always relies on one thing, and that is Love. While there are 11 different stories by 11 amazing Authors, all of the stories work together in a way to make one big book about Love and the title is perfect.

In each individual you will find romance, love, and stories you can even relate to. And while I enjoyed all the stories. The one story that stuck out most for me was Have my Heart by Rene Folsom. Her story centered around a biracial couple with a child. This is something you don't find very often. Even in todays world writers seem to stray away from this subject.

Overall this was a great collection of Love Stories. Some of them left me wanting more. I would suggest this book to anyone who believes in love. Love really does conquer all.

All Our Love has 11 great amazing short stories, I fell in love with all of them and they all sucked me in in their own way. I love this idea, and wish more authors would do this. Some of my favorite authors were involved and I hope some will take their short story and branch out. I need a few of them, I need to find out more about these characters we meet. Each and every story is it's own, but with the same twist, LOVE! No one of them are the same. I have my favorites, but I will not say. One of them made me ball my eye's out and I so badly want more from that one, Bad Girlfriend. I need more of their story. Please, please, please give up more of Kate and Gabe. Wow, that story seriously rocked me. I applaud Novel Grounds for putting together all these amazing authors and their stories, what a great idea.

THIS BOOK WAS A gIFT FROM THE AUTHOR, NOVEL GROUNDS

Denise Bartram says

I was gifted a copy by the authors in exchange for an honest review

12 lovely short stories wrapped in one cute looking book cover. It's been a long time since I've read a Mills & Boon book. Reading 'All Our Love' had me reminiscing about the days I used to curl up on my couch, mug of coffee in one hand, book in the other and some chocolate beside me. Yesterday and today, I curled up on my couch, mug of Chocolate Cappuccino in one hand, Kindle in the other and I read through these short stories.

This is the second romance anthology that I've read. The first one I found highly disappointing, to the extent I deleted it without finishing it. I was a little wary when I started reading 'All Our Love' as I didn't want to be disappointed a second time.

Each story was different. Some were straightforward romance, others were of the supernatural/paranormal kind. They all had one thing in common. Excellently written.

I finished each and every story and I liked each and every one of them.

I haven't read anything by some of these authors, but I will definitely be adding them to my authors to read list.

A nice heart-warming 4 Stars for this anthology because it brought back some good memories of the first genre I enjoyed reading as an adult

Gracie says

I always found anthologies difficult to review due to there being so many different stories by so many different authors. Anthologies are a wonderful way to find new authors. You get 11 different authors and stories in this one book, it's pretty much risk free. I highly doubt you will find a story that you won't like. If you don't know each of these authors, you will probably find a new one to love.

I loved every story in this book. Each story left me wanting more. It is now my goal to go and find all the full length stories that these go along with. I highly recommend this book. Each story, while short, is touching and sweet and shows the power of love. Love at first sight, second chances, feelings that make breaking the rules worth it, and love that saves.

You will smile laugh and cry.

(ARC provided in exchange for an honest review.)

All Our Love is collection of eleven love stories by eleven authors. All the stories are short, romantic stories that will draw you in. Reading the whole collection is equivalent to reading a long novel. This collection gives you a taste of different authors if you have not read any of their novels. I will admit the only author's whose novels I have read are Brooke Cumberland's. I can finally say I have read a paranormal romance story; a genre I haven't read before. One of the stories mentioned are a part of a scene of a novel by Sarah M. Cradit. One is going to have an extended version in the future that I'm looking forward to by Brooke Cumberland. One is part of a series by Felicia Tatum that I do want to continue reading. I would like to see No Details by Marie Wathen have a continuation (a series or extended version perhaps!) This is such a great collection and I enjoyed reading each of the stories that the authors shared for this anthology. All these other authors whose stories I have just read for the first time definitely have a new fan over here!

Tonya says

I was provided an ARC for an honest review. This anthology is filled with 11 5star short stories, written by some amazing authors. I could not put it down. I loved every story, each one had me wanting more and more from them. One story had me tearing up, all the others made me smile, even the one that had me crying, had me smiling too. I've purchased some of the other books that go along with the stories in this anthology as well. You can't go wrong with getting this anthology. It shows that love does conquer all, no matter what. I am so happy that I received an ARC.

Juli Valenti: All Roads Lead to Jackson

Cute Story about finding love during a chance encounter. RAVen's life is a hot mess. She's running from an ex, but the problems don't stop there. Jackson is a hot southern man, that comes to her aid. Loved it.

Brooke Cumberland: Bad Girlfriend

What an amazing short story. Absolutely loved it. Brooke had me crying at the end. I was both happy and sad for both Gabe and Kate. Happy that they found eachother, sad because of what was happening. They have an amazing love. This story just goes to show, that no matter what, you should always love.

Melissa Collins: Coming Home

Great story about 2nd chance love. Highschool sweethearts, Ryhys and Sophie. Sophie's controlling father moves her away to get rid of Rhys. Rhys is the sweet guy, that is from the wrong side of the tracks and his father is the town drunk. Will they end up with their 2nd chance?

Jettie Woodruff: Cora's Plantation

Great story about two people coming together. Anderson is trying to scam Cora, so that she will sell her plantation to his stepfather. His stepfather controls his life. Kady is Cora's granddaughter. She is also being controlled by her parents. What happens when these two meet and she finds out the real reason Anderson is there?

Brandy L. Rivers: Fated Love (Others of Edenton #2.5)

Great paranormal love story with some action. You do not have to read the other books in the series first. Brandy left me wanting more. Loved it. I will be reading the rest of the series soon and I can't wait.

Rene Folsom: Have My Heart

Rene has done it again with this story. It really touched home with the problems an interracial couple can face. The scene with Gwen and Maya had me tearing up. Being in an interracial marriage and having a biracial child, had me really relating to all the characters. This story was very well written, especially for a subject that not a lot of authors will write about.

Vicki Green: Home Again

Great story about a girl, Zoey, escaping an abusive marriage. While running, she ends up in a town called Sterling and meets Hutch. They fall in love. Hutch's friend tells him some thing, that makes his past come back and haunt him. Will he and Zoey make it through this?

Felicia Tatum: Masked Encounters

This story left me wanting more. Korah has a string of bad blind dates after getting out of a relationship. She says she is broken. Dane is the typical man-whore frat boy. He doesn't care for the names of the girls he beds. He just wants to get off. The frat's masked party will put these two in the same place. What will happen when they see each other at the party?

Marie Wathen: No Details

Left me wanting so much more. Cheney is on a trip with her girls. They end up at a bar, where she meets Ace. But she has one major rule. No dating a guy she meets at a bar, because of her past. Will she break her rules and listen to what her body and heart want, or will she stick to her rule?

Sarah M. Cradit: Surrender

Great story. Will be getting the rest of them!! I'm hooked. Anasofiya is a 16 year old girl. She has a crush on one of her best friends, Oz. She has no clue how he feels. Prom comes and they both have dates. What will happen at the prom could change things forever.

S.L. Dearing: The One

Amazing story, I want more. Kate goes to an art show with her friend who is an agent. Matt is one of the artists. She is looking at one of his works, when he approaches her, she does not know he's the artist. Will her past insecurities stop her or will this end up a story of love at first sight? Will she end up being his One?

Jodie's W.I.N.E. List says

This book is a collection of 11 different love stories by 11 wonderful authors. Each story is unique, appealing to different people. Some had me smiling ear to ear, one had me grabbing a box of Kleenex as I was reading, others just touched my heart and several left me wanting more. I even enjoyed the paranormal story, something I'm not really into at all.

I was surprised that the authors were able to make me connect to the characters in such short stories. You really have great character development to cause as much emotion as these stories did for me.

This book would be absolutely perfect for someone who likes to read, but doesn't always have the time to devote to an entire novel. I will, however, warn you that once you start the book, it will be hard to put the book down. The stories just get better and better.

I was provided and ARC as part of a blog tour in exchange for an honest review.

Tantalizing says

I thoroughly enjoyed this anthology. The stories jumped from the pages and the writing made you feel the love in the story. I could give you a review of each book but that would make this review extremely long. There were some stories that jumped out at me and I connected with like All Roads Lead to Jackson by Juli Valenti, Bad Girlfriend by Brooke Cumberland (ugly cry alert!), and No Details by Marie Wathen. In the end each of the eleven stories in this wonderful anthology will touch your heart, have you holding your breathe and warm your heart.

ARC received in exchange for an honest review

Venture says

The stories are Amazing! I already love a few of the authors but I also found new authors to enjoy. I adore Marie & Brandy's fantastic contribution. However one actually made me cry. Brooke u r in trouble for making me cry. Even if the story rocked. 10* except I want more!

Kendall {Book Crazy} says

First I'd just like to say how I'm going to review this book as it's an anthology with eleven short stories in it! I'm going to write short reviews for each one and the name of the short story is indicated above my review! I had no idea what to really expect with this anthology, but I knew it had some pretty amazing authors in it, so I was really excited to read it! The cover is also so pretty and I knew I had to read all the stories behind it! Big thank you to Novel Grounds for having me on the Blog Tour!

All Roads Lead to Jackson by Juli Valenti!

LOVE! I loved this short story! It was so freaking cute too! The plot had me hooked from the first page, but it was over far too quickly! This short story could easily have been a full length book! I wish it was lol! The plot of this story starts straight away and doesn't mess about! It was also hot, but it didn't really have a major climax or anything, but I suppose it was cute instead of climatic lol! Plus, it was really short lol! Anyway, it was freaking amazing, as where the characters! Raven was the main character and she made me giggle quite a few times! She had quite a funny personality and I loved that she sort of knew what she was like and how she was! I also thought she was going to be quite stuck up, but she wasn't, which I loved! Jackson was the love interest of Raven and he was a country guy! Sigh Don't you just love a hot country guy? Anyway, he was so hot and I loved how protective he was of Raven as soon as he met her! The ending of this story was so perfect and definitely summed up Raven and Jackson's relationship! I still wish the author would consider writing a full length book for Raven and Jackson though!

Bad Girlfriend by Brooke Cumberland!

Woah! I had no idea that a short story could impact me like this one did! I sobbed for ages after I finished it! I'm really happy that the author is releasing a full length book for it! I'll probably cry even longer after reading that one lol! The plot was so beautiful, but so freaking sad and emotional! It start out all bright, but then as soon as you discover the main character's secret, it goes quite dark and sad! The characters were amazing! Kate was the main female character and I loved her attitude and her spirit! She went through a lot in this story and I just wanted to grab her in a massive hug! I think she'll go through even more in the full length book, but this short story prepares you for it! Gabe was the love interest of Kate and the main male character! I also loved that this story was written from both Kate and Gabe's point of views! It definitely made the story even better! The ending was soooooo sad! I cried ugly tears! I definitely recommend tissues for when you read this story and I can't wait to read the full length book for this story too!

Coming Home by Melissa Collins!

This story was awesome! It was about two people rekindling an old relationship! I loved that it went back in time to when the two main characters relationship sort of started out and then it went into present and it showed the characters rekindling their relationship! The plot was hot and I loved the sexual tension in it! It also showed how much characters develop after they The characters were amazing! Sophie was the main character and she had been through a lot since her relationship with her love interest broke down! She showed how far she had come though and she powered on and she put her children first, which is something I really admired about her! Rhys was the main male character and love interest of Sophie! I loved Rhys! I could see that he still had strong feelings for Sophie, even though they hadn't seen each other in years, which was so sweet! I did think the ending of this story was a little abrupt! I know it's a short story, but it just stopped and I was dying to find out what was going to happen next! I have no idea if this author is writing a full length book to this story though! I really hope she does because I feel that there's so much more to Sophie and Rhys story!

Cora's Plantation by Jettie Woodruff!

This short story was so cute! It was all about two people realising what's more important in life and learning how to say no and stand up for themselves! The plot went at the perfect pace and I adored it! It developed brilliantly as well! It developed a lot further than I thought it was going to as well! It showed the full depth of the main characters relationship and where it went so far down the line, which I loved! The characters were amazing! I just loved them! Kadyne was the main female character and she was in such a predicament in this short story! All she wanted was to live a little, but instead she was trapped learning politics and following in her family's footsteps, even though she didn't want too! I did feel sorry for her, but I loved how determined she was to stand up for herself and tell her family she was doing what she wanted and not what they wanted! Kadyne also had her head on straight because she knew there was something fishy about her love interest, but she just didn't know what! Anderson was the main male character and he really surprised me in this story! He was in Kadyne's gran's town for a certain reason, but he surprised me when he did the right thing instead of doing the wrong thing! He was quite a hot character and I did smile like mad when he was with Kadyne lol! I loved that this short story was written from both Kadyne and Anderson's point of views! It was definitely essential because of how the plot plays out! I also adored the ending of this short story!

Fated Love [Others of Edenton 2.5] by Brandy L. Rivers!

I thought that I was going to find this story confusing because I've only read another novella from this series, but I was able to follow it and understand what was going on really well! This story was about two characters who have always had a thing for each other finally admit their feelings for each other! I also loved that this story had a paranormal aspect to it as well! It was the first story so far to not be a contemporary lol! The plot of Fated Love was fast paced and it had a bit of action in it too! I really, really enjoyed it! Christian was the main male character and he was so freaking cute! He was so protective of his love interest, Delilah, and I could see that he had always loved her! I also loved that he wasn't like a lot of other male characters in books I read, but he had the same qualities as them! He was so real as well and I loved that he refused to leave Delilah, even though he could have been hurt! Delilah was the main female character and she was so lovely! She was also quite feisty as well! Delilah went through quite a change in this story, but as a person she didn't, which I loved! I just loved Delilah! She also knew exactly what she was like as well lol! I'm definitely going to make time to read the other books in this series, especially after reading this story! I'm excited to see if Christian and Delilah make any appearances in the other books too!

Have My Heart by Rene Folsom!

This short story completely took me by surprise! It starts off by being written in diary form, but gives you flashback scenes and then it gradually progresses to the present where the situation presented in the past diary forms is resolved and out in the open! This is actually the first story I've ever read that's been written in diary form! I normally don't really like them, but I really enjoyed this story being written that way! The plot of this story was actually really sad! It was kind of hard to understand what was kind of going on in it, but it involved racial discrimination! The plot also had some light to it as well though, as the main characters found real love and realised what was more important to them! The characters were great! Gwen was the main character and she was so loyal! She knew where her loyalties lay and she stuck to her guns with them! I loved Gwen for that! She was also Blake was the love interest of Gwen and he was such a likable guy! He had been through quite a few scary situations, but he always put the safety of the person he was with first instead of his own, which is something I strongly admired about him! This story had a resolved ending and it was so beautiful! It showed how far the two characters had come since Gwen's first diary entry and I just loved it!

Home Again by Vicki Green!

I loved this short story! It was so beautiful and it had a lot in it! This short story was about the main female character realising how far she's come and the main male character trying to come to terms with his past! I was completely hooked on the plot! I didn't want it to end! It was so freaking amazing and there was a lot in it! The characters were amazing! Zoey was the main female character and she had come a long way from what her past had been like! She was happy and content with her life, until her husband starts to hide his emotions behind alcohol! Zoey was at a standstill because she didn't know what to do or why her husband has suddenly changed, but I love how understanding she was when she did find out! It really showed what kind of person she was! Hutch was the main male character and Zoey's husband! Hutch went through so many emotions in this story, but he also had been through a lot in his past! Something brought all his memories back and he used alcohol to try and forget about them! Hutch did start to sort of lose his family the more he drank, but a situation soon makes him realise what's more important to him! I loved the ending of this story because it summed up Zoey and Hutch's love for each other!

Masked Encounters: Extended Edition [Intoxicating Passion 01] by Felicia Tatum!

I had actually already read this short story previous to reading this anthology, but because it's an extended edition, I decided to read and review it again by using some of my original review, but changing it a little!

This story was just as amazing as it was the first time I read it! I loved the plot! I was hooked from page one and I was desperate to read on and see what was going to happen next! The plot was executed brilliantly for it being a novella! It had a hot guy, an unsure girl and a killer ending, which is everything that I love in a contemporary book! The characters were amazing! Korah was the main female character and I loved her! I can tell I'm going to love her even more as this series continues! Korah put up walls around her to protect her heart from being broken again, but when she meets her love interest you see her walls start to come down a little! I'm intrigued with just how far her walls will come down as the series continues! Dane was the main male character and he was a serious man whore, but seriously hot at the same time! I could tell that underneath his exterior he didn't really want to use girls, but he did! I'm hoping that maybe a certain love interest may just make him realise what's more important as this series continues! I've also read the novella in this series, but I can't wait to read them all!

No Details by Marie Wathen!

This short story was so freaking good! It took place over a couple of days and it had quite a lot in it! I really enjoyed the plot! It had a lot of sexual tension in it, which I loved, and I enjoyed the whole idea of it! The plot was also quite fun and it was executed brilliantly! The characters were amazing! Cheney was the main character and she was quite a fun-loving person and she was really easy for me to connect with! Cheney held her cards close to her chest in this story and she slowly revealed a card as the story progressed! I loved that Cheney didn't just jump into a relationship with her love interest and that she actually wanted to get to know him before she revealed anything about her life! Ace was the love interest of Cheney and he was quite persistent with getting to know Cheney better and forming some sort of a relationship with her! His persistent paid off though as Cheney gradually started to reveal more than she normally did to guys! I just loved Ace! He was so hot and I loved that he was really persistent and that he wouldn't let Cheney just leave without knowing anything about her! The ending of this story was also perfect! It just summed up the whole story and I completely loved it!

Surrender by Sarah M. Cradit!

I was a little worried about reading this short story once I discovered it was an expanded version of a flashback excerpt from the first book in this author's series, The House of Crimson and Clover, because I haven't read that book yet, but I gave it a whirl and I really enjoyed it! I did find it a little confusing, but I was quickly able to understand it all! The plot was so amazing! It was written in such detail and I found myself really drawn into it! I just loved everything about it! It was about two characters, who grew up together and both had strong feelings for each, tell each other how they really feel and start to form a relationship! Anasofiya 'Ana' was the main female character and my heart went out to her! She was such a lovely person, but she was quite lonely! I loved Ana's willpower though and she was such a lovable character! Oz was the main male character and I just loved him! I loved his honesty and I could see just how deep his feelings for Ana went! I really enjoyed this story being written from both Ana and Oz's point of views! It definitely gave more insight into the plot and I adored getting to see After reading this story, I will definitely be checking out this series and giving it a read!

The One by S.L. Dearing!

This story was so freaking cute! The sexual tension was dripping off the pages too! The plot was about two characters meeting and falling in love! The plot was quite fast-paced and it took place over a night and a morning and I loved it! It was really cute, but it was also pretty, damn hot as well! I just completely adored it! I was also drawn right into it and this story had the potential to be a full length book! The characters were just as amazing as the plot! Katie 'Kate' was the main female character and she was so normal and so easy to connect with! I loved her character and her personality! Matt was the main male character and he was a little bit cocky, but it made me laugh lol! He was such a flirt as well! Matt knew what he wanted and he knew exactly how to get it! I loved the way he was with Kate as well! He was so gentle and calm with her and he let their relationship develop at her pace and he let her make the first move! I also enjoyed that this story was written from both Kate and Matt's point of views! The ending of this story was so beautiful and it summed up the story and show how beautiful a couple Kate and Matt were! It also showed how well the title suited the story too!

I recieved an ARC in exchange for an honest review

It is usually so hard to write reviews on anthologies..Sometimes you get some really great stories while others lacked. I did not have that problem with this one. Each and every story will pull you and make you read it so you can see what happens! I really would love to have full stories!!! This book has 11 beautifully written stories that you all must read! A great, great read written by some seriously gifted authors! Check this out!

What a great collection of stories that these authors put together. My only complaint....they were short, but that was the point. I can honestly say that I have read works from most of these authors and for the new ones that I was introduced to it was a nice introduction.

Of course, there were a few stories that stood out for me, as I am sure there will be for every reader. My personal favorites were Bad Girlfriend by Brooke Cumberland and Coming Home by Melissa Collins. Both stories definitely left me wanting more but Brooke's story left me in tears. I am happy to know that Bad Girlfriend will be releasing as a full novel though so I will get my fill of Kate and Gabe. Maybe if we beg for more we can get Melissa to give us more Rhys and Sophie too.

So if you are a fan to any of these authors or if they are all new to you, give them a try...this a great way to sample their work and find new books to get lost in between the pages of. We could all use a little more love in our lives.
