yawn

I love the whole idea of the heroine being a prisoner of a sheik and all that drama so I was actually excited to read this. However I was disappointed with this book. Emily's character was okay at the beginning but towards the end she came off as desperate which lost some points from me. The sheik's domineering act was unnecessary and it seemed like he lusted after not and not necessarily loved her. I didn't feel their chemistry at all. The time frame spanned over what? few days? few weeks? The entire thing felt a bit rushed. Not cool.

Sapphira says

Una historia diferente, dos cosas a destacar de su historia: El pone en riesgo su vida para cumplir su promesa y la más bonita de todas, la petición me pareció super tierna. El momento, la forma, las palabras...

Helen says

Another light mills and boon read for the holidays with a modern day romance with a sheikh

Modesty_b says

it was monotonous

Leona says

This is a nice easy read. I really enjoyed the conflict between the Hero and heroine. It has an unusual twist to the "held captive" type of theme.

Nandini Ghosh says

Good story. liked it. Its a little different than the other sheikh stories I have read.

Emily says

She gets drugged and made to sail a yacht for a drug runner. sheikh catches them on his island. She is trying to get to her sisters family who is in trouble in Africa. No Chemistry Terrible book.

Not what I expected.

Lady Raven RAVE! says

liked it simple quick read, is it worth it yes it kind of reminds me of a historical romance novel being his captive because its kind of rare to read about captive and trade in modern romance novels

Elisa Vangelisti says

Rilettura. Emily viene catturata dallo sceicco Zago che la trattiene per scoprire se sia o meno invischiata in un traffico di droga. Nel frattempo Zago lascia la sua fidanzata storica, intrigato da lei. Purtroppo non sono riuscita a mantenere le quattro stelle che gli ho concesso alla prima lettura e di cui non mi spiego il motivo. Forse era la prima volta che mi imbattevo nella tematica e mi è piaciuta, altrimenti non me lo spiego. Lei è antipatica e indisponente. Lui subisce, ma è coerente col personaggio.

I only started to read this when I accidentally found the comic version of this book but the book is better than the comic version of course. You get the whole story instead of the highlighted part in the comic.

Well...I do like the chemistry between Zageo and Hannah. I've always love stories about Sheikh but I've read some of Emma Darcy's books and prefer The Wrong Mirror than this one even though The Wrong Mirror isn't about Sheikh.
