Before Bobbie Lamnt was the author of two best-selling memoirs (Bobbie Lamont), she was a shy bookworm for most of her life. Her journey in becoming that woman begins in the summer of 1983, in Birmingham, Alabama.

Born in to a wealthy family, Bobbie lives in New Orleans, Louisiana with her hard drinking socialite mother, her easy going father, and her sweet younger sister. She attends a Catholic school for girls with her best friend, Billie Carver, and tries to stay unnoticed by Angie Stone and Sarah Connor, two girls who bullied her.

Bobbie's life changes less than three weeks from her fifteenth birthday when she is in a car accident. She then spent the next three years trying to come to terms with the aftermath of that event while searching for her place in the world.

Zelmer Wilson's coming of age story, Two Girls Against the World, is not your everyday story about girls. It's a modern day classic set in New Orleans that is a powerful and moving story about friendship. Bobby and Billie are complements, almost two parts of a whole. Billie is strong and fearless and very, very protective of her otherworldly friend. Bobby's world is circumscribed by her books, Billie and Aunt Gina. Their closeness is sometimes physically impacted by one of them having a boyfriend, but Billie still finds it her responsibility and purpose to guide Bobby to the right parties, clubs and events, and, yes, the potential boyfriends. At one point, Billie mentions that they don't really need to physically talk to know what's going on in the other's mind, and it does seem to be the case. Their relationship is profound and close and a marvel -- as is this book. Two Girls Against the World is a keeper, something to read and read again and then ponder for a while. It's really quite good and it's most highly recommended.

Set in New Orleans, LA Bobbie Lamont lives with her 2 parents Susan Lamont (wife/mother), Robert Lamont (husband/father) & Delilah Lamont (sister). The 2 girls went to St. Mary's. Delilah is killed in a car accident because the Susan was drunk. Bobbie had taken the steering wheel to prevent the accident.

The Jaws of Life was used to free the victims of the car accident.

She goes for rehab but to no avail continues the lifetime cycle.

Bobbie ends up in therapy with Dr. Santana (f).

Fast forward Bobbie & Billie Carver (Bobbie BFF, narrator) attend St. Augustine Academy for girls.

Bullies: Angie Stone & Sarah Connor are constantly harassing Bobbie.

The parents are separated & plan to get back together. Bobbie goes to visit Aunt Gina while they sort stuff out.

Bobbie goes through HS, has several heterosexual relationships but they just don't pan out.

Lots of yrs. Bobbie & Billie graduate HS, Bobbie plans on going to Tulane University.

I did not receive any type of compensation for reading & reviewing this book. While I receive free books from publishers & authors, I am under no obligation to write a positive review. Only an honest one.

A very awesome book cover, great font & writing style. A very well written heart sad book. It was very easy for me to read/follow from start/finish & never a dull moment. There were no grammar/typo errors, nor any repetitive or out of line sequence sentences. Lots of exciting scenarios, with several twists/turns & a great set of unique characters to keep track of. This could also make another great family tragedy movie, or mini TV series. A book that blew me away. I could defiantly psychoanalyze this book, but I won't! There is no doubt in my mind this is a very easy rating of 5 stars.
