Rags !Disappears!

Rags' documentary is to be shown in San Francisco and the Iveys take Rags so he can attend. They are given luxurious accommodations and at the showing Rags disappears. Savannah and Margaret are sure there are other cats in the mansion after being assured that there are no cats around. Michael and Savannah learned of an old mystery.

I enjoy this series.

Rags is at it again!

I could not put this story down. I have read all of the books about Rags the Kleptomaniac Cat. This story starts out with Savannah, Michael, Maggie, Max, and Rags going to his premier of his documentary. Once there, they are ready to see the program but things go downhill from there when Rags goes missing after the premier and the ladies go looking and cannot find him.

Rags has stepped into it again. He ends up saving a life and making sure the police get their man or should I say woman.

The exploits of Rags has kept me entertained and wanting more.

Entertaining but...

While I enjoyed this book, it wasn't as entertaining as I expected. There is way too much useless conversation between the main characters that doesn't advance the plot, but seems to be there to fatten up the book. It was, for me, just "ok".

It is amazing how many mysteries Rags finds. This is a light hearted mystery that deals with some tough subjects. Some of the twists I saw coming and others I was surprised at. It keeps you guessing.

Mansion of Meows is a fast easy read and a clean read. Cat lovers will like a couple of the rooms in the mansion. Plus all the cats.

Rags is a cat that steals. Sometimes the things he takes are clues to a crime or mystery. His owner is Savannah and Michael Ivie.

Rags documentary is scheduled for it's debut. It is going to take place at a mansion in San Francisco. His human stars are all showing up to it. They are staying in cottages at the estate. Rags is treated like a king.

Oh course there is secrets in the mansion and Rags is in the thick of things. Until he is not. I do find it hard to believe that the secret remained a secret for so long.

I like this one scene when a lady for the documentary is telling Savannah about it. Then tells her she can't sit in front.

I have read 7 out of the 9 books in the Klepto Cat Mystery series and have enjoyed reading them. I still would like to read the two I have missed.

I was given this ebook to read by the author so that I could give a honest review and be part of Mansion of Meows blog tour.

Series. Keeps Getting Better

I have enjoyed all of the Aleppo cat books, but I think this was the best one yet. Savannah, Michael and Rags go to a luxurious mansion for the premier of the movie about Rags made in a previous book. Shortly after arriving they realize something strange is going on in the mansion. What follows is a tight and exciting mystery with a lovely pay off and enough action to keep me quickly turning the pages of my kindle.

I am looking forward to the next book, number 10 in the series. This is one of those series one should really read in order, but I think this could be read enjoyable for a first-time reader.

If you are cat lover you will enjoy the kept cat series, I do hope we will see more of Rags antics in the next one.

I just couldn't resist purchasing this cozy mystery with my own funds. I truly enjoy reading about Rags's escapades and his owner's who end up in more trouble then it sometimes seems worth it because of this rascalion cat!! This time Rags has to be saved when he suddenly disappears from his documentary debut! Maggie and Savannah get lost in the marsh and Maggie gets conked over the head. There is a deep dark secret in the mansion and this time they have to call their sheriff friend from back home to help solve it! Mansion of Meows
