Everything He Fears Thalia Frost

Next stop—Venice and a year with Rock Weldon, billionaire CEO...

Lacey Pate has agreed to being the bookkeeper for the sexy, mercurial Rock Weldon, CEO of Regal Enterprises. A steamy flight across the ocean to Venice will test her limits and her trust of the enigmatic man she has fallen for.

Threats to the company and to the man she loves mean her job is about to get a lot more complicated. Will she accept the challenge that Rock proposes and stand between him and everything he fears, even if it means facing the ruin of her reputation?

Melissa says

Too short. This seems to be a series that is a release of each chapter of a book. This super short snippet was a terrible tease. I would have loved if the characters were more developed and a plot line was laid out. The story is beginning to build, but once you start to get into the story it stops and there is another book to purchase.

Short. Escalating sex scenes and I guess it gets even more "bdsm-ish" in the next books.
