PrettyTOUGH serves up another ace!

Maggie Anderson and her twin sister, Bella, are a doubles team destined for tennis greatness. They've just started their freshman year at Beachwood Academy and it seems like everything--even the Olympics!--is within their sights. But when Maggie quits the tennis team suddenly, she leaves Bella in the lurch.

Told in alternating first-person POVs, Fifteen Love is the kind of sweet, super-clean paperback you'd give to your younger sister. And with the original online series coming up--and a splashy series repackaging to match--the PrettyTOUGH books should have an even wider readership than ever before!

Joséphine (Word Revel) says

I thought the author explored reasons for and against choosing to engage in sports among youths fairly well. The plot was believable too and true to real life. I liked the dynamism between the twins. While some may not find this book very imaginative I liked it very much if only because it's about girls and their love for sports. That alone already warranted three stars minimum for me. The fourth star is for the complexity which underscored Maggie's revulsion yet love for tennis and how she overcame her inner turmoil.

Cornelia says

Fifteen Love was a touching, hilarious, fun story with lot's of twists and turns.

Brianna says
