The Gifts of the Spirit: Understanding and Receiving God's Supernatural Power in Your Life Derek Prince

The Powerful Gifts Available to You

Every believer has been given at least one supernatural gift of the Holy Spirit. Do you know which you have and how to operate in it?

Internationally renowned Bible teacher Derek Prince explains that any believer who is not manifesting gifts of the Spirit is living far below the level of God's provision for his life.

Prince reveals how to:

Minister to others through the gifts

Discern the counterfeit

Witness through spiritual gifts

Stir up the gift within you

One of our greatest necessities in the church today is to demonstrate through the power of the Spirit that Jesus is alive and that His gospel is true. The world needs to see the manifestation of the presence of God. Believers need the ministry of the body of Christ through spiritual gifts. The Gifts of the Spirit reveals how we can fulfill both of these needs—practically and powerfully.

Jennifer Wilson says

I rarely agree with everything in a book, and this one is no exception. I do, however, recommend it to ALL Christians. I think this is an important book because the Pentecostals are such a fast growing denomination and that I believe every Christian should be aware of what Pentecostals really teach (or in some cases SHOULD teach) about the Gifts of the Spirit. After all, there are guidelines set down in the Bible as to how some of the Gifts of the Spirit should operate, and if a church allows gifts to operate in their church, they should be following those guidelines.

This is presented in an easy to read style. It was a relatively fast read, and I liked how the Gifts were grouped in different sections. (Gifts of Revelation, Gifts of Power, Vocal Gifts). It was a great way to group them.

This book uses lots of Scripture to back up his beliefs, which I liked, even if I don't agree with all he teaches. It showed me where he was coming from, and I believe it's important to understand the differences between denominations, and this is a good overview of that.

Christopher Lewis Kozoriz says

"If we do not exercise the gifts of the Spirit, we are robbing ourselves and others of the means of edification." (Derek Prince, The Gifts of the Spirit, Page 228.)

Well laid out book on the gifts of the Spirit. Each gift is explained on the basis of Scripture. The gifts of the Spirit expounded upon are:

Gifts of Revelation

- * A Word of Wisdom
- * A Word of Knowledge
- * Discerning of Spirits

Gifts of Power

- * Faith
- * Gifts of Healing
- * Working of Miracles

The Vocal Gifts

- * Kinds of Tongues and Interpretation of Tongues
- * Prophecy

If you have ever wondered what your spiritual gifts are and how to operate in them, then you should read this book.

One thing the author says is that you can't turn the gifts on at will. I don't necessarily agree with this. I think you can turn the gifts of the Spirit on at will. I think it is up to the individual to step out in faith and to turn the gift(s) on.

The world is seeking believers who can demonstrate the power of God and I say as Paul says, "concerning spiritual gifts, I would not have you ignorant (unknowing or uninformed)." (See 1 Corinthians 12:1).

I loved this book. The insight in how and why God gave these gifts, and what the gifts are, inlightens the use of these gifts for the upbuilding of God's kingdom. Not man's.

Jean Maurice M. Prosper says

A Biblical explanation of the gift

Derek Prince used only biblical references to explain the spiritual gifts. His personal experiences always follow the trend of the Bible. His language is plain and easy, allowing us to really understand this so important factor of faith.

GLENN MAXWELL says

Gifts of the Spirit

I recommend this book to everyone who has a desire to learn more about the gifts of the Spirit. It is really eye opening to great truths.

Aaron Bolin says

Excellent summary with practical insight

Derek Prince delivers a concise summary in an easy to read and engaging format. I am much more grounded in the topic as a result.
