Nancy L. Sullivan says

Great!

This was a great collection of short stories! A little bit different than her other books but really a good collection.

Tere Fredericks says

If You Like Scary

These four stories are for you. Not one of the four had anything in common except the creepy factor. Because they are short stories, they go by fast, as there's no need for deep character development etc. Creepy is excellent here.

Robin says

Very very intense but I loved the writing.

Julie Potter says

Once Again

It doesn't seem to matter whether it's one of her full page novels or short stories, she catches my attention from the very first sentence and keeps it until the very end.

Ananda says

Good stories. Just enough disturbing to make you cringe without wanting to throw the book.

Zoe says

Wish they didn't end

Brilliant short stories hope you write more of these. These could easily be made into longer stories as the endings are so open!!

Katya says

Don't-you-dare-turn-off-the-light scary! Things that seem like a bad joke- like a killer snowman, for one- are made genuinely creepy. Prepare yourself for lots (and lots) of gore.
