4. Discussion question

Q: Martin Luther King was proud of being black. What are you proud of?

A: I think I am persevering. I do not give up something easily. Therefore, I am proud of that point.

5.

Before reading this book, I did not know much about him. I really like him because he fought for freedom of black people and peace. He is such a great person. I was shocked somehow after learning discrimination for black people. However, I think people should learn many things from that. It is worth learning. So, I recommend to read this book!
