Sejal says

Believe me, if I could, I would give infinite stars to this one. There isn't any book compared to this one. I mean, it just constitutes 3/4th of my heart. IF I read just a few specific words from this book or even remember them, I feel like crying (though i bite my lips and control myself). Seriously there is no love compared to this and no sadness compared to his. I have read the whole series twice, downloaded it and will still read it again and again. The minute I go to US I will buy these books. I cannot explain my feelings in words but I can say that it fills my heart. All my doubts about love and life are cleared when I read this. If you wan't to know what is love, then please read the whole book
