Friendly Foal Dandi Daley Mackall

Twelve-year-old Winnie Willis has a way with horses. Along with her dad and sister, Winnie is learning how to live without her mom, who was also a natural horse gentler. As Winnie teaches her horses about unconditional love and trust, God shows Winnie that he can be trusted as well. Readers will be hooked on the series' vivid characters, whose quirky personalities fill Winnie's life with friendship and adventure.

#7: Friendly Foal—A newborn filly has lost her mother, and it's up to Winnie to help this foal adjust to her new world. Along the way, God teaches Winnie that he never gives up on us and we shouldn't give up on our friends.

WINNIE THE HORSE GENTLER: FRIENDLY FOAL #7

By Dandi Daley Mackall

Winnie has her hands full over Christmas break. She has to care for and save a newborn orphaned filly. Then she gets a plea for help from classmate Salena "Sal" Fry. Sal received a horse for Christmas - a miniature horse and she needs help or the horse will go back. Sal doesn't know the first thing about horses and her new horse Amigo is scared.

Along the way Winnie learns a valuable lesson about friendship. God is the best friend that we can ever have and He will never let us down!

Join Winnie as she discovers lessons to ring in the New Year with!

A sweet book that needs to be read in series order. The horses are appealing, and the story contains excellent lessons about friendship. I appreciate Winnie's contentment in being a child instead of trying to grow up too quickly, and I enjoy her interactions with Catman, Barker, Hawk, Sal, and Lizzie.

I intend to purchase this series for our church library!

I really enjoyed these books when I was younger, and when I went back and re-read them, enjoyed them just as much. I appreciate how much Winnie grows in each book, yet that no one grows too unbelievably much.

Thank you Dandi Daley Mackall for eight great books!

I remember really liking this one. I believe it was because of that sad story that Winnie's dad's friend told. Made it more interesting.
