Being raised Pentecostal, it was helpful to learn WHY I believed certain things. I also learned to throw out things that I was just taught out of tradition. As my husband says, "Eat the meat and throw away the bones." I also love the Word Wealth sections that give the Greek and Hebrew roots of words. Once you get started inductively delving into it, it is hard to just do "surface" reading anymore.

Love the notes on each page, hate the concordance.

This Bible is amazing. Of course, there is no greater love story than God's love for this world, a love deep enough that He would send his only Son to die for us in order to reconcile us to him. In addition, the articles and help resources that are included add greatly to the ability of the reader to understand difficult passages. I read this Bible every day, and I have for years now, and even thought I've read every page many times over, I always get something new from the added articles, as well as the Scripture itself.

I find the New King James version of the Bible to be closest (in my opinion) to the original Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek. The Spirit-Filled Life Bible uses this version, and also contains excellent notes and footnotes that (again, in my opinion) include good, objective interpretations.

This is a study bible. Many of my friends have asked where they can get one. I have the paper back, it falls apart easily, so get the Hardcover!

The only reason it's not a 5, is the concordance in the back isn't that great, but it does have a concordance.

I love how the notes and excerpts in this Bible and Greek and Hebrew meanings for words. LOVE IT!
