Patty says

This little book was direct and honest in Joyce's typical style. She has great personal examples and Scriptures to illustrate her points. It's not a lengthy book, yet each page is powerful. Amazing job once again!

Olivia says

Thought provoking and great in helping one to understand how overcoming past abuse is possible through Christ.

Melissa says

Very quick read. I love all of her books! This book teaches us to please God and not man.

---

Michelle says

Good As Always

Joyce is a blessing. An uplifter, encourager and a vessel used by The Holy Spirit to convict our hearts and inspire us in love to run to Jesus.

I enjoyed being encouraged and lead to freedom!

Tiffany Rae says

My second JM book and I've ordered More!!

---

Debbie Welsh says

Excellent scripture based reading written from a wise woman. Worth the read.

---

Vicki Cook says

Excellent little book full of wisdom and to the point. Really helped me with my feelings of rejection.

---

Peggy Donnelly says

Good things come in small packages. A real blockbuster.

---

Bridget says

Joyce Meyer is very good at delivering thought provoking, yet practical, spiritual messages about living the best life that you can lead.

Niama Perrotte says

I felt more free like the author may feel....

---

Mary Ladrack says

Excellent read! It is worth re-reading to go over understanding rejection and how to deal with it. So easy to read as with all of Meyer's books!

Ebony says

Excellent "oldie but goodie" from the Joyce Meyer. I highly recommend it for anyone who has ever felt disabled by rejection. This book was refreshing and so helpful!

Jaimee Early says

This book really changed my outlook on Joyce. She is so much like me. Now I cannot get enough of her teachings.
