BASIC SYNOPSIS

This book isn't so much an in depth dissection of the Lord's prayer, but more how praying the Lord's prayer shaped the author's personal testimony.

MY THOUGHTS

A quick and easy read with a couple of good points. I confess I skim read sections of the book because I wasn't looking for a memoir, but more on the prayer itself. Still, it's worth reading, more so if you can get it for free or really cheap like I was fortunate too. I'd give this 2,5 stars if we could give half stars.

One gripe:

I'm no grammar nazi, but one thing that really triggers me is the incorrectly used phrase "Could care less", which unfortunately no proof reader noticed in this book. Hopefully that gets corrected in a later edition.
