A DARK ROMANTIC SUSPENSE

Runo Wiggins is a scarred man, the wounds etched into his psyche deeper than those on his skin. But he loves his job: fighting fires helps reenact his survival of a house fire as a teen, one that killed his mother and brutal stepfather.

Dawn Caravello is married to a psychotic drunk. She can take his beatings as long as he doesn't touch their children, and she'll do anything to put food on the table, even if it means stealing from the town hero.

When Runo meets the fiery Dawn, sparks fly. But he suspects she is victim of the same abuse as his mother was. As day turns to night, the past and the present blend in an exhausting, hold-your-breath chase to prevent another death.

Elyzabeth VaLey says

Fiery 10-16 is a major page turner. This dark romantic suspense has it all: tortured characters, plenty of tension, and deep, soul binding love.

Lea Bronsen's writing is excellent. She does a great job of maintaining and escalating the suspense throughout the story, making it impossible to set the book down. Her characters are well rounded, their personal stories skillfully developed. More than once, my heart went out to them. I laughed, cried and despaired with them.

Runo's and Dawn's chemistry jumps off the page and though they fall for each other pretty quickly, the relationship between them, which is full of emotional, romantic and heated moments, feels natural and believable.

This was a great read, and I'll be looking forward to more books by this author, especially future Smokey Glen stories!

Kiru Taye says

This book was so intense and my heart was racing throughout. I couldn't stop reading. Runo is such a hero. I would have let the villain burn, dammit. wink

This is dark and suspenseful and should carry some trigger warnings. Not for the faint-hearted or squeamish.

Theresa says

Jerry Springer-esque. DNF.

Janis F says

Lea Bronsen once again does not disappoint in this romantic suspense story. It's dark and it's hot of course because it's Lea!

Firefighter, Runo, meets a woman (Dawn) in need and oh boy does she need. Dawn's home situation is bad and Runo goes out of his way to make sure Dawn and her kids are protected.

I really enjoyed this book and would highly recommend it.

This book could be a trigger for some so be sure to read the book description above. (10-19 is code for domestic abuse)

I received a copy of this book directly from the publisher.

First, I'll like to thank the author because she did a giveaway, and I was lucky enough to win it! she signed my book and sent me to Bolivia

Fiery 10-16 it's about Runo and Dawn both of them have their own problems, Runo is a firefighter who doesn't want a girlfriend, and carries the suicide of her mother and the death of his father.

Dawn on the other hand is a victim of domestic abuse, and is willing to do everything to protect her 3 children. At some point they meet each other, and can't deny the attraction that both feel for each other.

Although this story was short, it was an entertaining book, what I liked about this book was Runo he was a good person and an excellent firefighter, I also enjoyed his relationship with his friends, they were like his brothers.

This book is really fast!! and you can finish it in one sitting.

I didn't like the Insta love! it is so unrealistic, I didn't like how short this book was, The author has a great writing style, but It would have been better if it was longer.

I think I'm going to continue with this series!

The TBR Pile Book review site says

Be warned, Fiery isn't your average romance story. It's dark, dirty and a must read!
