I was stuck in a reading funk and decided to give a comic a shot. Little did I know I would become a huge fan of Harley Quinn that I have been devouring all her comics. I love the art and the stories paint her in a light I never expected. I have enjoyed every installment so far and looking forward to reading them all. Highly recommend she's quickly become my favorite DC character.

Harley Quinn shows how to get rid of animal poop...in a very destructiv kind of way of course...

Nate says

There's breaking the fourth wall and then there's destroying it with a wrecking ball. This issue is hilarious, and a great piece of writing!

Pies in the Skies

Absolutely love Harley's casual outfit! Would seriously consider cosplaying it at some point.

Made me chuckle when she kept haggling whilst being threatened at gun point. Like, really? You're trying to scare me, little boy? XD She used to dealing with a better class or criminal and the usual thugs are such amateurs.

Was gob-smacked when I saw the poo catapult thing. Simultaneously such a Harley thing and so not a Harley thing? Not sure I feel about it tbh. It solves a problem I guess; though I don't see why Ivy couldn't whip up some crap-eating plant that would do the job in a much more efficient way, I'm pretty sure Harl would be all for that.

Sarah says

Industrial sized poop slinging. Doesn't get better than that.

Nicole Lamberson says

Haha

That Harley has no boundaries! She just kills me with her bold snarkiness and desire to be good, of course she has to be naughty to be good sometimes.

4/5 stars

Wow, what a dramatic finale!

In the final issue in this volume of Harley Quinn, we finally find out what Tony's been building for Harley, as well as the revelation of someone who is most likely going to be part of the main story arc for the next volume, Power Outage.

Also, there's this whole skaters thing that I'm hoping is going to be part of the main arc of the next volume (I've loved roller derby since I watched the movie Whip It with Ellen Page) as it wasn't really prevalent in this volume so much.

There was a neat ketchup joke (I swear, the small jokes in these have me smiling so much), and the art work was, yet again, wonderful.

that fight club reference tho.

Mistralvarito says

Es una gilipollez como una casa. Pero es muy muy divertido. Me ha encantado.

Harley is at it once again and this time she's continuing to bring the laughs. One of my favorite things about The Harley Quinn New 52 series is that while there is a serious plot to it, they never lose the humor and goofiness that Harley is also known for.

Sure, there are plot points where I kind of shake my head and go really?!? Really. But that's part of what Harley Quinn is about. She's going to do the extreme and usually she does the extreme better than anyone else ever could have.

This issue in particular I thought could have used a bit more of the actual serious plot to it but still it continued to be wonderful, to make me smile and laugh, and all around just have a good time while reading it.
