About the Book:

Children can now color their way through 32 beloved stories from the Bible, featuring text from the New International Reader's Version (NIRV). Favorite characters such as Noah, Daniel, Mary, and Jesus are brought to life in this 144-page coloring book. After coloring, the pages can be displayed to encourage creativity and memory of the classic Bible stories.

This book is perfect for young children just beginning their journey through the Bible.

My Review:

The coloring book fad is not really big news to our little guys. But a coloring book created in the fashion that this one is, is possibly a new concept to our children. It has the white pages with the pictures drawn with dark black lines very similar to most of the adult coloring books out there. In this one though there are Bible stories that go along with each coloring page.

With 16 different sections and writings from the Old Testament and New Testament combined. Within the over 100 pages of this book your children will learn a lot about God and His Son. Everything is done real simply and thorough, as to not overwhelm the child. With every page colored my little one is sure to soak up every bit of this book as he colors and learns more about Jesus.

MY BIBLE STORY COLORING BOOK: THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE is what it says. A Bible story book and a coloring book so children can read the story and color the picture corresponding to it. This would be a great gift for children under the tree, or to use on the long car trip to Grandma's house for the holidays.

Also good for churches, Christian schools and day cares.

The stories are true, but fictionalized, making it easy reading and the artwork is well done, encouraging a child to reach for a marker, crayon, or coloring pencil to start filling it in with color.

I was given a copy free. All opinions are my own.
