The quest continues for the gritty players at Seishun Academy. With their sights dead-set on making it all the way to the Nationals, they must outclass every team that stands in their way. Next up is Fudomine, a group of belligerent players who were disqualified from the rookie games last year due to a tournament fracas. Tempers flare and talents soar when the battle begins with the very first serve. It might take more than "Tsubame Gaeshi" to secure this victory!

Bhu says

This series is just really good and motivates you to play tennis or even start to learn tennis

Kricket says

Ever so slightly boring...not enough Ryoma action in this one. I got tired of Kaoru's snake shots...even the BOOMERANG SNAKE!!

Anyways, we'll tune in next time to see if 2nd and 1st singles can defeat the unseeded underdog, Fudomine.

"How can he maintain cat-like reflexes in this rain?!"

Natalie says

Like its predecessor, volume four focuses on fewer characters; this allows for character development that isn't very present in the first two volumes. Kaido and Fuji's stronger presence gives more depth to the team as readers learn more about them and their style of tennis. The action moves quickly and dramatic tension builds with each rally. Can Kaido's Boomerang Snake defeat Fudomine?

This volume has the same shortcomings as the first three: there are lots of cliches, the characters are still one-dimensional, and the plot is formulaic. The tennis action, for me, allowed me to overlook these faults.
