This is a Goodreads book.

I have a coloring book that I use whenever I need to relax and clear my mind. Since I am almost finished with it, I entered and won Create a Coloring Journal. It was not what I expected from the description. I think the word journal confuse3d me. I expected more of a daily, weekly or monthly format with coloring pages opposite them. This book does have writing spaces but with topic headings, such as A Glorious Feast. I will use these pages for bi-weekly thoughts. The coloring pages are very nice. A few have pale printing but that may be by design. I do look forward to using this book.
