In this sparkling Mermaid Tales adventure, can Kiki overcome her fears and enjoy her first-ever trip to the ocean's surface?

The third graders at Trident Academy are traveling to the surface of the ocean for the first time ever for a “hugely” exciting activity: They’re going to visit a pod of humpback whales! But Kiki is less than thrilled. In fact, she’s scared from the top of her head to the tip of her tail. After all, the enormous creatures could swallow her (and maybe her entire class) in one giant gulp! Kiki’s pals Shelly and Echo try to help shrink her fears, and when a new friend comes along—a very big, whale-size friend—Kiki’s courage emerges, and the fun looms large.

mrs. karp was reading the trident city tide and there was a pod of whales. so they had a ocean trip. kiki was scared of whales because they were so big and she was so small. But, she had a lucky charm. Shelly and Echo were already breaching on a whale named Mortimer. Kiki found a baby whale and was frightened. But the baby whale helped her find her lucky charm and Kiki got to breach on the whale.

Read this to my little girl. She loves it. We are planning on reading the whole series

Caitlin Vansteel says

The twins thought the mer-book was so awesome.

Kristine Hansen says

Kiki is terrified of whales...but has the coolest bed in the entire world. Seeing how she faces her fears when she's worried about her friends is awesome. Yep, starting to like these books.

Hannah F says

I liked this book because it was a page tuner until the the end. This book is recommend for anyone who wants to reed it. If you like mermaid books you would like this book because it is a mermaid book. It is about them seeing whales. Read the book to find out more.

Meghan Nels says

While this is not the best book I have ever read I am still planning to purchase the series for my library. My second grade girls are devouring the Fairy series. This will be the perfect series for them to read when they finish reading all of the Fairy books.
