Um.....

Ok. I'm enjoying this series or was, but can't we get a happy ending and move on. I mean...I feel we're getting a bit far fetched here. Alec is here, then there, then there. He's like a ping pong ball. I mean...I'm all about some action, but you can't get crazy with it. McAwesome can defeat anything but he disappears to do so for a long time...then the prodigal son returns. Hallelujah! Eye roll here. Kind of getting tired of that part. I may or may not read the next books. I read the synopsis and they don't appeal to me. Plus reading the reviews....yikes. I may read 6, but I'm concerned with where this is going.
